

The public airwaves should be protected from misuse by Sinclair Broadcasting and any other large media companies that seek to sway the election one way or the other. By law, Sinclair should serve the public interest, not their own political agenda.

The FCC should take action to stop Sinclair's proposed broadcast of Stolen Honor unless Sinclair provides equal time to air a pro-Kerry documentary of approximately equal length and near the same time.

If a compromise is not reached, the FCC should take action to revoke Sinclair's license.
